

City of Alma

Alma City staff has been following CDC, POTUS, and Governor press conferences and other information given out. Information is being placed on the City website, almacity.com in the Recent News section on the home page. As we move through this crisis please refer to our webpage for information affecting the City of Alma and a reliable local news source for information affecting our area.

The current coronavirus pandemic is fluid and fast moving, so anything can and will change quickly. In reviewing what other Cities are doing and information from the CDC, POTUS, and Governor the City of Alma has implemented the following:

City staff will monitor their health and the health of their immediate family. With any indications of sickness and/or symptoms of the coronavirus, the employee will follow the current guidelines by the CDC, POTUS, & Governor. It is recognized that at times employees may work in close proximity. It is strongly suggested to try to keep a safe distance when possible.

Library is following the current Directed Health Measures guidelines.

City Office We encourage all business to be conducted by telephone, email, fax, or mail. The City Office is following the current Directed Health Measures guidelines.

Community buildings are following the current Directed Health Measure guidelines.

City shop is following the current Directed Health Measure guidelines.

RV Park is open with shower houses closed until further notice.

Golf Course is following the current Directed Health Measure guidelines.

City Wide Clean Up is canceled.

Airport terminal remains available to air travelers and cleaned regularly.

Swimming Pool is open and following the current Directed Health Measure guidelines.

Recycling is available at its normal location.